Zero Year is the continuation of Scott Snyder and Greg Capullo's excellent Batman run after Death of the Family, though it should be noted that the story is out of sequence and in fact takes place several years before Death of the Family. The creative team were burdened here with the unenviable task of retelling the origin of the Dark Knight.

My review applies to volume 4: Zero Year, as well as volume 5. Great story telling, but after 75 years, publishing Batman origin stories several times in different media... I felt a little jaded towards another retelling of the hero's journey from Bruce into The Batman. Greg Capullo wasn't the only penciller, though.
