Saskia fête ses 18 ans et s'apprête à entrer en terminale, comme toutes les filles de son âge. Toutes, vraiment ? Si c'était le cas, pourquoi son quotidien vire-t-il au cauchemar, enchaînant phénomènes incongrus et rencontres étranges ? Quel secret recèle la pierre qu'elle porte au poignet depuis qu'elle a été trouvée aux portes d'un orphelinat, bébé ? Que lui veut Tod ...

réfugier à Arion, Saskia héberge les survivants. Mais Tod est gravement blessé, et de nouvelles attaques fragilisent le petit groupe. Saskia ne peut plus reculer : il lui faut trouver le Surclan, et éclaircir le mystère du Cercle des cent. Elle part donc à la recherche de ses ennemis, sans rien soupçonner, ni de leur puissance, ni de leurs effrayants secrets.

Dans les années 60-70, la caravane du « Continental Circus » traverse tout le continent européen, emmenant pilotes, familles et mécaniciens dans l'une des plus formidables périodes du championnat du monde moto de vitesse pure. Chaque année, cinq mois durant, pilotes d'usine et pilotes privés écument les circuits avec une seule obsession : gagner ! Dans cet enfer de vitesse, d'huile et de cuir, les exploits se succèdent, mais les erreurs se paient cash ! Et apercevoir le drapeau à damiers prend parfois des allures de miracle...

Gabe and Eve Caleigh, along with their two daughters, leave London behind to move to Crickley Hall in the West Country and soon begin to realize that their new home is haunted by nine orphans who died there during World War II.

This harrowing tale of supernatural suspense kicks off a new series from the visionary mind of #1 New York Times bestselling author Scott Westerfeld. When a plane crash-lands in the arctic, eight young survivors step from the wreckage expecting to see nothing but ice and snow. Instead they find themselves lost in a strange jungle with no way to get home and little hope of rescue. Food is running out. Water is scarce. And the jungle is full of threats unlike anything the survivors have ever seen before--from razor-beaked shredder birds to carnivorous vines and much, much worse. With danger at every turn, these eight kids must learn to work together to survive. But cliques and rivalries threaten to tear them apart. And not everyone will make it out of the jungle alive.

This book constitutes the refereed post-conference proceedings of the 6th European Conference on Information Literacy, ECIL 2018, held in Oulu, Finland, in September 2018. The 58 revised papers included in this volume were carefully reviewed and selected from 241 submissions. The papers cover a wide range of topics in the field of information literacy and focus on information literacy in everyday life. They are organized in the following topical sections: information literacy in different contexts of everyday life; information literacy, active citizenship and community engagement; information literacy, health and well-being; workplace information literacy and employability; information literacy research and information literacy in theoretical context; information seeking and information behavior; information literacy for different groups in different cultures and countries; information literacy for different groups in different cultures and countries; information literacy instruction; information literacy and aspects of education; data literacy and research data management; copyright literacy; information literacy and lifelong learning.

The gripping first book of a rebellious trilogy about truth, power, and impossible choices, perfect for fans of Divergent and Legend. Kyla 's memory has been erased, her personality wiped blank, her memories lost forever. She 's been slated. The government claims that she was a terrorist and they are giving her a second chance—if she plays by their rules. But scenes from the past haunt her as she tries to adjust to a new life, family, and school, leaving her unsettled. Who is she really? And if only criminals are meant to be slated, why are so many other teens disappearing? As she and her friend Ben seek answers, Kyla is torn between the need to know more and her instinct for self-preservation. "A suspenseful page-turner with a highly sympathetic and strong female protagonist. . . . Will have readers waiting eagerly for a sequel." —Booklist "Excellent. . . . Kyla's erased memory works wonderfully as a storytelling device." —io9

An international movement that followed specific geographical-cultural patterns, Conceptual Art built on the legacy of Marcel Duchamp, redefining the institutional and social relationships among production, work and audience in ways which have comprehensively transformed the nature of the art object and forms of artistic practice, both historically and in the present. Investigating and documenting the histories, theories and forms of Conceptual Art, this timely book, including both established writers and a new generation of art historians, shows that Conceptual Art was a broad movement encompassing a range of artistic tendencies. This is the most stimulating account of the movement to date, arguing forcefully for its vitality and potential as well as examining its influence on art today. With essays by Alex Alberro, Stephen Bann, Jon Bird, David Company, Helen Molesworth, Michael Newman, Peter Osborne, Birgit Pelzer, Desa Philipagesi, Anne Rorimer, Peter Wollen and William Wood.

even knew. Will and Jenny shared a passion that defied their backgrounds, and when Jenny got pregnant, they planned to elope. But on the big day something went terribly wrong...and after the baby was born, Jenny gave her up for adoption, to a nice couple who called her Claudia and raised her as their own. Now Claudia is all grown up. While she loves her adoptive parents, she is haunted by dreams of her "other mother." Curious to discover the truth, Claudia begins a search that will lead her to the avenues of Manhattan and the mountains of California--to a man and woman separated by fate and time whose love for each other still burns strong...
