This exciting new book presents the Theory of Inventive Problem Solving (TRIZ), a process that will provoke a breakthrough in your thinking patterns and the way you approach problem solving. The pillar of TRIZ is that contradiction can be methodically resolved through the application of innovative solutions. The Three Premises of TRIZ The ideal design is a goal Contradictions help solve problems The innovative process can be structured systematically With Systematic Innovation you will learn how to stop seeing conflicts as insurmountable barriers and instead celebrate them as opportunities for improvement and refinement of the design process. You will learn how to eliminate the words "tradeoff" and "compromise" from your vocabulary. The ideal design will become an expectation, not just a dream. By practicing the methods presented in this book, you will increase innovation and radically improve design. Discover the "science" of creativity!

'On the Wrong Path is an extreme challenge where you always have to be prepared for the unexpected. This is not a novel. This is real.' Lonely Planet Magazine.'It is one adventure after another. Once you start it you can't stop' TV3 Catalonia National Television.A trip becomes an adventure when you run towards it without being prepared for everything that can happen. It usually starts with an innuendo, a few words between two sips of beer, a scrap of paper that falls from memory files, or a carefree and vague suggestion picked up on the fly by some thoughtless person passing by."What if...?" "Why not...?" "Let's do it." It is one of the most important moments of a journey: when dreams cease to be a fantasy, an absurd chimera, and become a plan. When you realize that you have an accomplice. That the adventure you had hidden away like your private porn is a shared dream. From then on you have problems. Any hint of withdrawal, any suggestion of taking a well-trodden path will label you as chicken, city chicken.Would you like to go to Africa? You're going to Africa. Would you like a break from your daily routine? You're breaking your daily routine. Would you like to live the adventure of a lifetime? You're going to live something unforgettable.I can assure you of this. Don't say you didn't ask for it.
