A sales objection is an explicit expression by the prospect explaining why they will not complete the purchase. Overcoming sales objections involves the use of 'objection handling'. This is a four-step process where you listen to the complaint, understand it, respond, and confirm the objection is resolved.

reason. Yes, that's right. Many objections are smokescreens hiding the real objection. If you don't get involved in dealing with these "red herrings" you'll have less trouble and you won't run out of persistence and give up.

Isolating Objections - Selling & Persuasion

One way to overcome this objection is to demonstrate past examples of change and how it was positive. For example, show the client a list of different ways the industry has changed over the past 10 to 15 years, and how the potential customer can adapt to those changes. This can help them be less fearful and more confident about changing things up.
