I have read previous posts about best road maps for Sicily and the consensus seems to be the TCI map. Is it that much better than the Michelin Sicily map? Are there advantages and disadvantages to either? I understand from another traveler that the Michelin map is VERY large. I have located the TCI map from bookdepository.com and it indicates it was published in 2012. But I can't find this ...

This is a tricky one as taking a road trip in Sicily requires good directions and orientation. If you have 3G then you don ' t need to worry. However, if you don ' t, then the alternative is the good old traditional map. They say that the best map is the Touring Club Italiano Sicilia which you can find on amazon for £ 7.99.
