Real cooking, Chef Tom Colicchio

Colicchio taught me in his book

Think Like a Chef, isn't about learning to follow recipes to the letter, just like real art isn't created by following a paint-by-numbers coloring book. Get bogged down in the minutiae of a follows, and "Think Like a Chef" certainly delivers.

In 2000, when the book was first released, Tom

Colicchio was the successful chef of Gramercy Tavern who had attracted a loyal following among the Foodies of New York, but he was nowhere near

Be advised - Think

Like A Chef is not a traditional cookbook. Do not expect to buy a

That said, this is a wonderful book for someone who wants to understand how to cook without being a slave to recipes
