The portable radio was an innovation by the Zenith company, which released the first version in 1924. It was followed in 1926 with the first portable radio that could run completely on electricity from a household outlet. Dating the age of your Zenith radio can help you determine the value and overall rarity.

Zenith quickly became known as an innovator. It released the first portable radio in 1924, followed two years later by the first radio that operated entirely on household electricity. In 1927, Zenith introduced the first radio with push-button tuning, and in 1940 it broadcast the first FM radio station in the Midwest.
